Meeting New People Idioms
Beating a dead horse	You bet your bottom dollar	Run around the bush
Painted myself into a corner	Horse of a different color	Talks a blue streak

Lina’s answer Part 3:

1. My friend loves to talk a lot. She can talk so much about any topic she talks a blue streak.

2. John: Kevin do you think it will rain tomorrow?
Kevin: I am 100% sure of it! I bet my bottom dollar.

3. Sarah: This weather is horrible.
Anna: Yes it is. Hey, did you hear about Robert’s new girlfriend?

Sarah: Yes, I did, but that is a horse of a different color.

4. Tom: Did you bring your homework?

Paul: I think so. I don't remember. What do you think about the new girl Sarah? Do you think she's nice? Do you think she has a boyfriend?

Tom: I guess she's ok. How did you do on your math homework?

Paul: Ok, I think. Do you think Sarah likes me?

Tom: Ok, we need to focus on our homework Paul! Stop running around the bush.

5. Jessica: I feel so bad. I told Fred I would go to the school dance with him, but today Joe asked me to the dance and I said yes to him too! I don't know what I should do. I can't go to the dance with both Fred and Joe. I have to make a choice. I feel like I  painted myself into a corner .

6. Jim: We should all start a business together.

Steve: But Jim, we've talked about this already. We don't have enough money to start a business. I still have to pay for school, and Mark has to buy a new car.

Mark: Yeah, Jim. Even if we had enough money, we don't have any experience with business or a location for a store. This idea won't work. I don't think we can do it. I think you're beating a dead horse.
